

"KNOWLEDGE IS POWER, EVEN MORE IN A TIME OF RECESSION"

The world is undergoing important changes as a result of the pandemic that has taken us by surprise, the oil industry has not escaped this. National and International oil companies, NOCs and IOCs have had to evaluate an optimization of their portfolios executing only those projects that allow maintaining production levels.

The oil companies at this time should aim at optimizing their assets at low costs, having as an alternative the implementation of IOR / EOR technologies; To do this, deepening knowledge as a fundamental basis and taking the lessons learned in different projects worldwide can make a great difference in the management of financial resources in order to maintain and / or increase production levels during and after this recession.

The knowledge community through its different organizations, primarily The Society of Petroleum Engineers (SPE) continues to move in that direction to strengthen and promote the exchange of experiences in the exploitation of conventional and unconventional resources. In this way we cite some of the most important events in terms of IOR / EOR, to be held in the current year:
